

Dress Code:

Men should wear long pants, trousers or jeans. Ladies should wear scarf and long pants, trousers and jeans preferably covering their buttocks and dresses that are not transparent and please long sleeve dresses-but it is easy to dress up in Iran because all the clients at home have these dresses at home.

Money:

** ATM, credit cards and traveler checks are not accepted in Iran and for your personal expenses bringing cash is recommended (Euro or USD).

**Only in some special galleries in Isfahan clients can use their credit cards in case they purchase goods more than Euro 300 or equivalent in Dollars.

Notes:

Taking any kind of backpack inside Persepolis is not allowed.

** Places to visit that might be hard for some clients to walk either because these places are dusty or they have high steps:

Persepolis (steps and dusty),
Necropolis (steps and dusty),
Towers of silence (slope and dusty),
Rayen citadel (steps and dusty),
Pasargadae (dusty), Ali Qapu
Palace (high steps), and Jewelry
Museum (steps).

Vaccination:

No vaccinations are required or recommended for travel to Iran.

Language Spoken:

Modern Persian

Main Airports:

** Tehran Imam Khomeini International Airport,
** Shiraz International Airport,
** Isfahan International Airport,
** Tabriz International Airport, and ** Mashad International Airport.

Holy Shrines:

In the holy shrine in Qom ladies should wear "Chador"-a long covering dress for whole body.

** The Shrine in Qom is subject of the visit of the state officials so sometimes tourists cannot visit that.

** In Qom non-Muslims are not allowed inside the shrine they are only allowed in the courtyard of the holy complex.

Timing:

** Time to start in the first morning of arrival in Iran is approximately 10:00 am - 10:30 am.

** Time to start the tour in cities is approximately 8:45 am - 9:00 am

** Time to start to check out of hotels to travel to the next city (destination) is approximately 8:00 am - 8:30 am

** Time to end the program of the city tours is as long as the tour gets finished that is approximately 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm but in some cities like Isfahan the city tour ends at approximately 2:00 pm.

Currency:

Iranian Rial

Food and Drinks:

In Iran as an Islamic country neither alcoholic beverages nor pork is allowed.

Visa:

All European, American, Australian, and Canadian citizens should have Iranian visa in their passports either to collect it at the Iranian embassies in their countries or upon arrival at International airports.

Passport:

** For a trouble-free tour, please leave your passport at hotels' reception safe and do not carry any valuables/bag while touring around.

** In hotels in Iran upon arrival for check in the clients should leave their passports with the reception until check out day; in some cases, hotels do not ask for the passports but please be informed about this.

Photography:

** In Iran taking photos of military bases and police stations is not allowed; in case in some special places photography is not permitted the local guide would inform the clients immediately.

** Flash light photography inside buildings-historical buildings like mosques, fire temples, churches, and palaces also museum...is not allowed in Iran.

** In historical sites in Tehran and Isfahan use of tripod for photography is not allowed unless the photographer holds the official permission for that from the authorities.

Emergency Call:

The phone number to call in case of emergency is 110 (Police).

Electricity:

The Iranian voltage is 220. Electric devices in Iran use Euro plug which has two round prongs.

